Role Play

Read your role card carefully. Explain your reason. Play your role.

1

You have been shot by Peter.
You have survived but you are in a lot of pain.
You never liked him.
He was strange.
You could not tolerate that he would not fit in.
You were the boss
and not him.

2

When you were little kids
you kind of liked Peter.
Maybe he was a bit funny
but really he was okay.
Later you might not have been treating him right
- you sort of went along with the bullying.

3

You are a teacher at Peter's school.
You have always known that he had problems fitting in.
You always suspected that he might be bullied by some of the other students.
But it was not really your problem.
What could you do anyway?

You are Peter.
You have been bullied
all your life in school.
So one day you just had enough.
